WHAT TO EXPECT:

Start the day with a greeting to your attendees and a continental breakfast. Be amazed by the insights behavioral coach Diana Welch will help your employees unfold at a fun, but in-depth, personal exploration. Participants receive personalized insights that deepen their understanding of self and others, making workplace interactions more enjoyable and effective.

Take your new personal insights into a team building exercise, such as, bucket golf through a course that wanders through beautiful lawns and gardens in a tournament style golf game.

Take time to share your company's vision while enjoying lunch. After lunch the workshop will continue with the team building session where every individual will learn how to build more effective relationships at work.

The day will end with snacks and beverages including your company's wrap up.

PERSONAL ASSESSMENT OPTIONS:

DISC Workplace Assessment

Discover the Power of We. The DISC research-validated learning program will teach learners at every level of an organization the language of DISC through its comprehensive videos and training program. The Everything DISC assessment will provide personalized insights with tips, strategies, and action plans to support improved team communication pathways.

5 Behaviors of a Cohesive Team Assessment

Genuine Teamwork remains as elusive as it's ever been. The 5 Behaviors of a Cohesive Team assessment helps teams understand how they score on team building components such as trust, conflict, commitment, accountability and results. The assessment will provide individual profiles that highlight behaviors and help to build comprehensive reports.

"I will consult with you on what assessment would best help your team achieve their goals."
